September 2018 NEW RELEASES

- A celebration of the remarkable resilience and enduring appeal of the terrace house in Australia
- Featuring 20 homes that exemplify the ingenuity of Australia's best architects, landscape architects and interior designers

The Terrace House: Reimagined for the Australian Way of Life

Cameron Bruhn and Katelin Butler COMPACT EDITION

With British precedents and working-class origins, the terrace house has a story of remarkable resilience.

Today it is highly sought-after for its nostalgic charm and inner-city locale. A new generation of homeowners is making their mark by working with architects and designers to reimagine the terrace house for a twenty-first-century lifestyle.

From subtle refinements to bold geometric forms, alterations and additions are often hidden from the street creating a sense of intrigue about what lies behind, above or beyond the romantic facade. This collection of homes celebrates the incredible history and enduring appeal of these well-loved buildings.

September 2018 NEW LEAD ARCHITECTURE

Artists' Homes: Live/Work Spaces for Modern Makers

Tom Harford Thompson

An intimate look at the interiors, lifestyles and houses belonging to a wide range of artists and makers.

In Artists' Homes, writer and photographer Tom Harford Thompson presents some thirty individual, eccentric houses and workspaces, from a music producer's studio in Hackney to an eco-warrior's treehouse on the Sussex Downs. His evocative photographs show how our live/work spaces, whether a tumbledown cottage, a country farmhouse or a reclaimed factory, are beautiful because of the lives we live in them.

September 2018 NEW RELEASES

Celebrates 100 powerful personalities from the chilli family in lively four colour illustrations, presenting everything the aspiring chef or gardener needs to help them harness the heat.

An Anarchy of Chillies Caz Hildebrand

Each chilli pepper is a little anarchist demanding to be known in its own right. With over 2,000 varieties, and a dizzying array of flavours, shapes, sizes and colours, chillies are a key ingredient in everything from our favourite curries to drinks and desserts. But even the most experienced chilli fanatic needs a guide to which variety to choose and how hot they should go on the infamous Scoville scale. This essential kitchen companion introduces the nuances, creativity and versatility of 100 members of the crazy chilli family, telling their stories and offering advice on how to deploy the little demons to best effect.

September 2018 NEW LEAD ART

Books Do Furnish a Painting

Jamie Camplin and Maria Renauro

Thousands of fine paintings include books in their subject matter. This companionable survey first asks 'what is a book?'; it explores the symbiotic relationship between the development of books and the emergence of our modern idea of the role of the artist; it parades and interprets the work of many of the greatest artists of the last five hundred years; and it explains how and why books became the single most ubiquitous feature of our cultural lives and, in large measure, of our everyday existence.

256 Pages, 24.0 x 16.5cm, 165 Colour Illustrations (HB)
ISBN: 9780500252253 Thames & Hudson

NZ$55.00

Michael Jackson: On the Wall

Nicholas Cullinan, With essays by Margo Jefferson & Zadie Smith

Michael Jackson, one of the most successful recording artists of all time, also has the distinction of being the most depicted cultural figure; an inspiration for an extraordinary array of leading artists – from Andy Warhol and Isa Genzken to David Hammons and Grayson Perry – working in a variety of styles and media. This book, which accompanies a major exhibition, examines their artistic responses to an enduring international icon.

252 Pages, 280 x 275mm, over 120 Colour Illustrations (HB)
ISBN: 9781855147119 National Portrait Gallery

Forms of Enchantment: Writings on Art and Artists 1988 to 2017

Marina Warner

A series of enlightening perspectives on the art and visual culture of today's world from one of our pre-eminent writers.

In this new anthology of some of her most compelling work, she captures the visual experience of the work of several artists – with a notable focus on the inner lives of women – through an exploration of the range of stories and symbols to which they allude.

288 Pages, 22.9 x 15.9cm, 51 Illustrations (HB)

Celebrate Today is a guided journal that provides a reason to revel every day of the year. It is inspired by the National Day Calendar, a compilation of appreciation days for everything from pizza to Popsicles. Beginning in January and ending in December, each page is dedicated to trying something new, enjoying the little things, and feeling a sense of accomplishment by marking the passage of time in a journal.

A History of Pictures for Children

David Hockney and Martin Gayford, Illustrated by Rose Blake AGES 7+

A History of Pictures for Children takes readers on a journey through art history, from early art drawn on cave walls to the images we make today on our computers and phone cameras. Based on the bestselling book for adults, this children's edition of A History of Pictures is told through conversations between the artist David Hockney and the author Martin Gayford, who talk about art with inspiring simplicity and clarity. Rose Blake's illustrations illuminate the narratives of both authors to bring the history of art alive for a young audience.

- A children's edition of the bestselling book for adults, A History of Pictures (978 0 500 239490), which Clive James described as 'a magic flight of a book'.

Franklin and Luna Go to the Moon

Jen Campbell, Illustrated by Katie Harnett
AGES 3+

Luna and her best friend, Franklin the dragon, love stories and want to visit all the places they've read about in books. But for all their reading they still don't know where dragons come from. And Franklin is now so old – 605 to be exact – he can't remember himself! They search high and low, but to no avail. Until one evening, Luna's tortoise, Neil Armstrong, notices something far away in the sky... The three friends set out on their biggest adventure yet – all the way to the moon – in the hope of reuniting Franklin with his long lost family.

The Dress and the Girl

Camille Andros, Illustrated by Julie Morstad
AGES 4-8

From the Greek countryside to Ellis Island, follow one girl and her favorite dress in this fresh and lyrical immigration story.

A little girl and her favorite dress dream of an extraordinary life. They enjoy simple pleasures together on a beautiful Greek island. They watch the sunset, do chores, and pick wildflowers on the way home. One day, the dress and the girl must leave the island and emigrate to the United States. Upon arrival, the girl is separated from the trunk carrying her favorite dress, and she fears her dress is lost forever. Many years later, the girl—now all grown up spots the dress in a thrift store window. As the two are finally reunited, the memories of their times together come flooding back. While the girl can no longer wear the dress, it's now perfect for her own daughter—and the new journey of a girl and her dress begins. Featuring lush illustrations, The Dress and the Girl is a stunning picture book about memory and the power of the items we hold most dear.
