Glenn Murcutt Unbuilt Works Nick Sissons

Never-before-seen unbuilt works from Australia's most highly awarded architect.

A thinker considered to be ahead of his time, Murcutt is one of the world's most celebrated architects. Working in close collaboration with Murcutt, architect Nick Sissons, his former student and assistant, presents a selection of never-before-seen projects documenting the journey between some of the esteemed architect's most notable works. A revelation for any lover of architecture.

- The first and only book to showcase these previously unseen works.
- Murcutt is the only Australian to have won the Pritzker Prize, the most prestigious architecture prize in the world. The Alvar Aalto Medal and the American Institutes of Architects Gold Medal are amongst his numerous other honours.
- Reveals ten designs in remarkable detail, including original hand-drawn plans, sections, elevations and sketches from Murcutt's personal archive.
