Menus, feasts and stories inspired by Sunday Reed's kitchen gardens

A Heide Harvest

Alice Crowe and Maximilian

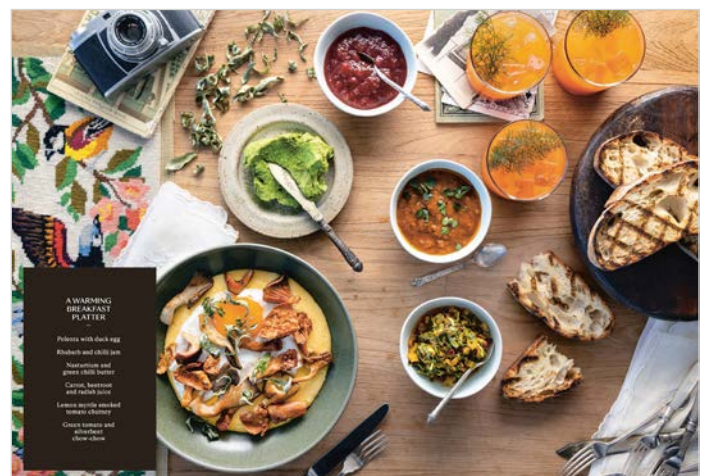

In 1934 when John and Sunday Reed purchased an acreage in Heidelberg they had a vision of a bohemian artistic community living in harmony with the earth. The Heide gardens became a place where everyone contributed and heritage roses grew side-by-side with herbs and heirloom vegetables, and it remains so today.

Inspired by the Reeds' values of nourishment and communality, this seasonal cookbook features 90 original recipes from leading Australian chefs as they share their interpretations of and reflections on the Heide kitchen gardens. Combining food, art and history, A Heide Harvest is an ode to Sunday's kitchen and garden and the continuing legacy of Heide Museum of Modern Art.

A day in the life of the Heide kitchen gardens: with a foreword by Lesley Harding and menus to inspire you from breakfast to lunch, afternoon drinks and beyond.

- Top chefs, including Annie Smithers, Dom Gattermayr and Rose Richards, were invited to create menus and feasts based on the produce and philosophy of the Heide kitchen gardens.
- Dawn to dark menus, catering for every meal: A warming breakfast platter, a Spanish-inspired lunch, a vegetarian banquet, sumptuous picnic fare, afternoon drinks and a farmhouse dinner.
- Modern Love: the Lives of John and Sunday Reed has sold over 6500 copies, and the popular Sunday's Garden and Sunday's Kitchen are over ten years old and due for an update.
- All new photography by Robyn Lea, author of A Room of Her Own and This Creative Life.

How Australian Democracy Works And why we need it more than ever The Conversation (Edited By Amanda Dunn)

'This is the book I wish I had when I enrolled to vote for the first time! Accessible and essential reading for all Australians.' - Bridget Hustwaite, presenter and bestselling author of How to Endo.

In recent years, the trust in Australian politics and politicians has been at an all-time low. From political polarisation and the spread of disinformation to the lack of trust in the public institutions that underpin our government, the truth can often be hard to find. How Australian Democracy Works is a pulse check of our country's political health and a helpful guide to understanding our nation's history and our place in the world, from government, parliament, the Constitution and pressing policy issues. Discover the best, most current analysis from people with valuable experience and expertise to better understand who we are, how we got here and where we might go next. From The Conversation's top academic writers comes an honest and informed call to examine, rethink and safeguard Australia's unique democracy.

From The Conversation's best authors comes a much-needed pulse check on Australia's political health and the state of our democracy.

- Like The Voice to Parliament Handbook, but for our democratic system and the next election.
- Answers all the important questions ahead of the next federal election: how our democracy operates, government, parliament, the Constitution, our accountability mechanisms and our place in the world.
- Everything you need to know about Australia's democratic system: the main players, the main issues and the best way to be involved and make your vote count.
- Endorsements by Bridget Hustwaite (65k followers), Maggie Zhou (52k followers), Zara Seidler (The Daily Aus, 563k followers), Leo Puglisi (56k followers on X/Twitter) and author Clare Wright (4k followers).
- Pitched at upper-secondary students and uni students but written in a way to appeal to adult readers as well. Potential opportunity to place the text in school libraries and include in the curriculum.
- The Conversation has over 7 million readers in Australia and New Zealand and 23 million readers globally. It is also connected to Australia's vast network of university academics.

Gladiator II
The Art and Making of the Ridley Scott Film
John Walsh

This definitive volume takes readers deep into the extraordinary production of Gladiator II. Exploring the revolutionary special effects and breathtaking artistry that went into re-creating the grandeur of ancient Rome on a truly epic scale, Gladiator II: The Art and Making of the Ridley Scott Film features storyboards, unit photography, concept art, character and costume sketches, and an array of props and ephemera, offering a comprehensive look at the creative process behind one of the most eagerly awaited sequels of our time.

The official behind-the-scenes companion to Sir Ridley Scott's highly anticipated sequel to Gladiator.

With a foreword by Sir Ridley Scott and exclusive interviews with the cast—including Paul Mescal, Denzel Washington, Pedro Pascal, Connie Nielsen, and more—as well as insights from production designers, armorers, and the visual effects team, the book grants an insider's look at this cinematic epic and is an essential companion to the film.

- LONG AWAITED SEQUEL: Gladiator II is highly anticipated as the original Gladiator was a major box office success, earning over 460 million dollars worldwide and winning five Academy Awards.
- RETURNING DIRECTOR: Creative visionary Ridley Scott is back at the helm of this behemoth of a sequel, guaranteeing the same level of meticulously detailed production, artistry, and innovation.
- HOT STARS: The star-studded and talented cast including Paul Mescal, Denzel Washington, Pedro Pascal, and Connie Nielsen is sure to bring in large audiences.
- IN TIME FOR THE OSCARS: The book will build on excitement from the film's premier in late November and go on sale in time for Academy Award consideration and promotion.

ART

Aboriginal Art Wally Caruana

This concise survey showcases the incredible, diverse work of Aboriginal and Torres Strait artists. Building on traditions that stretch back at least 50,000 years, these artists have long worked in a variety of contexts from the sacred and secret realm of ceremony to more public spheres. This new edition has been expanded and updated to include and reflect on important artists who have emerged in the last decade, with a focus on the burgeoning of activity in the Southern Desert region, Queensland and the Torres Strait Islands - all testament to Aboriginal art's continued dynamism and vitality.

Weegee

Clément Chérout, Cynthia Young, Isabelle Bonnet, David Company

Offering a new perspective on Weegee's oeuvre, The Society of the Spectacle presents the photographer's iconic images beside lesser-known works. There's a mystery to Weegee. The American photographer's career seems to be split in two. In the first part of his career, which coincided with the rise of the tabloid press, Weegee was an active participant in transforming news into spectacle. In the second half of his career, Weegee mocked the Hollywood spectacular. This book seeks to reconcile the two parts of Weegee by showing that, beyond formal differences, the photographer's approach is critically coherent.

HISTORY

Beneath our Feet

Michael Lewis, Ian Richardson, Mackenzie Crook

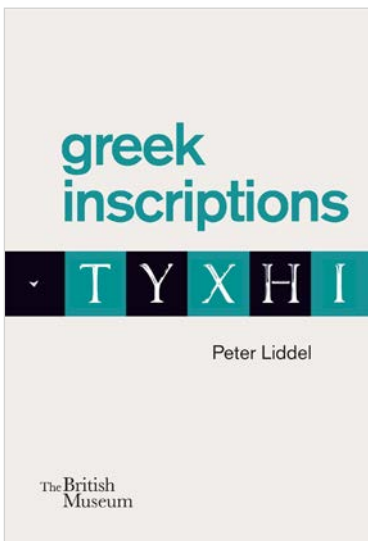

Recount the incredible stories of more than 50 archaeological treasures recently found by ordinary people, and which are reshaping our understanding of British history. Britain's history runs deep - and much of its treasured past lies hidden underfoot. Every day, new discoveries are unearthed not by expert archaeologists but by amateur enthusiasts. What they find is perhaps at first glance unremarkable, but from the pieces emerge stories of how our ancestors lived, traded, ate, played, fought - and died. Beneath Our Feet is a celebration of this growing public involvement in archaeology, and the groundbreaking work of the Portable Antiquities Scheme managed by the British Museum in England and Amgueddfa Cymru in Wales.

Greek inscriptions

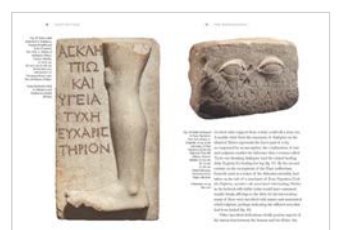

Peter Liddel

An accessible introduction that reveals the importance of Greek inscriptions in the understanding of ancient Greek culture. Inscriptions are an important form of evidence for our interpretation of past human societies. They are outstanding sources as they offer direct snapshots into the behaviour of humans and their aspiration to make a permanent and public record of themselves. Greek inscriptions in particular combine word and image in a multitude of ways. They give us views of inter-state relations, historical narratives, the political administration of city-states and honorific culture; and at the same time offer perspectives on the significance of ideas about democracy, citizenship, gender, ethnicity, religion and the supernatural.

A sun-speckled story about one little girl connecting the two countries she calls home through the matching of colours.

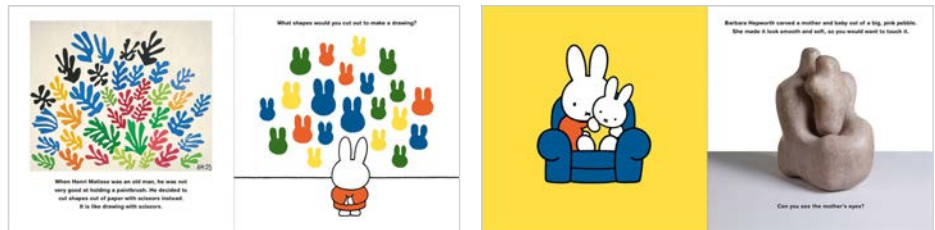

- CBCA award-winning illustrator and BBF Illustrator's Showcase Finalist.
- A picture book that appeals to preschool children with the matching colours as well as school-aged children with the more complex narrative about having two places to call home.
- Themes of having two countries and cultures relatable to many children.
- A story that celebrates diversity, family, home and the colours that make up our beautiful world, wherever we might live.
- Positive Kirkus review for the US edition of Tiny Wonders, recently published by Bloomsbury US - 'Full of hope, warmth, and charm, a reminder that it's the little things that matter.'

Miffy and the Artists Dick Bruna

Published to coincide with Miffy's seventieth birthday, this beautiful art book introduces young children to some of the world's most iconic artists.

Miffy and the Artists is a joyful introduction to art for young children, featuring Bruna's bold illustrations in combination with iconic artworks by Frida Kahlo, Yayoi Kusama, Henri Matisse, Vincent van Gogh, and Andy Warhol, among others. Using clever pairings of Bruna's Miffy illustrations with these well-loved works of art, the book neatly captures the essence of each work. Combining a simple statement about each artist with questions that encourage children to look more closely at the artwork on the page, Miffy and the Artists is a warm welcome into the world of art for young children and their families.

Lost and Found in History Clara Booth

Follow two kids and their cheeky puppy on a chase across time in this fascinating and funny interactive introduction to history at its grandest . . . and its most gruesome, by debut author-illustrator Clara Booth. Traversing Ancient Egypt and the Roman Empire to the French Revolution and New York's Roaring '20s, this book combines the seek-and-find fun of Where's Waldo? with the irreverent hilarity of Horrible Histories. In each era, readers are encouraged to search through a busy illustrated scene where key people and objects are hiding. On the following spread, well-researched and playfully told facts accompany illustrated vignettes, adding insight to what the reader has found.

Chad Lucas

Bones Malone feels like he can't do anything right in his new small town: He almost punched the son of the woman who babysits him and his brothers, he's one of the only Black kids in Langille, and now his baseball team (the one place where he really feels like he shines) just lost their first game. To make matters worse, things in town are getting weird. His mom isn't acting like herself at all—she's totally spaced out, almost like a zombie. And then he and his brothers have the same dream—one where they're running from some of their deepest fears, like a bear and an eerie cracked mirror that Bones would rather soon forget...
